

Contract Physical Therapist needed (Playa Del Rey)

compensation: 60 for IPA trained therapist 75 for CFMT

employment type: contract

I am looking for a Physical Therapist who is passionate about delivering quality care to each patient. Someone who believes that each patient regardless of age, ability, or diagnosis has untapped potential. This position would be most appropriate for someone who would like to pick up a little more work that is flexible.

Responsibilities:

Evaluating and diagnosing patients and creating a concise and specific plan of care that is customized to the patient communicating that plan of care through EMR documentation (soap notes and progress notes)

periodic communications with doctors and Pilates instructors scheduling assigned patients based on your availability (this is flexible, but Ideally Tuesday and Friday Afternoon to evening and possibility weekends)

Requirements:

DPT or MPT as well as a valid and current CA PT license

Completion of all lower level IPA courses (CFS, PNF, and FM1)

Your own liability insurance

Preferred:

Pilates training would be a plus
